Ordnung des Hauptgottesdienstes

(Order of the Divine Service)

Setting Five, LSB p. 213 ff.

One of the concerns raised during the time of the Reformation was for people to be able to participate in the worship service in their own language (in their case, German). Until that time, the music and much of the speaking was all in Latin. Early in the 1520s, the people were asking Martin Luther to revise the Latin Mass (Communion service) by simply translating it into German. Luther, however, being a good musician in his own right, was concerned that the music of the Latin Mass was specially fitted to the Latin words, and that simply translating the words into German just wouldn't do. He said, "I cannot bear to hang German words on Latin notes." Yet the calls for a Communion Service in the German Language continued, and so, in 1526, Luther assembled a series of hymns, written mostly by him, as a service called the "Deutsche Messe" (German Mass, or German Communion Service). New German hymns were written to replace the major parts of the Latin Service.

Today's service uses many of these hymns (translated for us into English), with one exception. The "Kyrie" (Lord, have mercy) hymn (LSB 942) is difficult to sing. Instead, we will sing an original hymn by Pastor McPike written to fit Luther's Lord's Prayer hymn tune.

Invocation, Confession, Absolution p. 213

Hymn: „Ein Feste Burg ist Unser Gott“ (656 , stanza 1, solo)

Ein' feste Burg ist unser Gott,

Die uns jetzt hat betroffen.

Der alt' böse Feind,

Mit Ernst er's jetzt meint,

Gross' Macht und viel List

Sein' grausam' Ruestung ist,

Auf Erd' ist nicht seingleichen.

O Christ, Thou Lamb of God,
that takest away the sin of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Christ, Thou Lamb of God,
that takest away the sin of the world,
grant us Thy Peace. Amen.

Ayrieled: (Kyrie Hymn): "Our Father, God in Heav'n above" (tune: Vater Unser im Himmelreich, TLH 458)

Our Father, God in heav'n above,
You lavish us with grace and love;
Created everything and gives,
All that all creatures need to live.
In peace to God now let us pray,
Have mercy on us, Lord, this day.

Lord Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
For sinners has salvation won.
True God, True man and King of kings,
Our prayers before God's throne He brings.
In peace to God now let us pray,
Have mercy on us, Lord, this day.

O Holy Spirit, God and Lord,
To guard our faith Your strength outpour.
Bless us when our last hour has come,
and take us to our heav'nly home.
In peace to God now let us pray,
Have mercy on us, Lord, this day.

Text: Rev. Jeffrey D. McPike, 1996, based on 11th Century Latin text.

Wir Glauben All' an Einen Gott ("We All Believe in One True God") (LSB 954) and the Nicene Creed

The hymn Martin Luther wrote for the Creed is somewhat difficult to sing; thus, it is sung as a solo, together with the words of the Nicene Creed spoken by the congregation, as follows:

C: I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

Solo: "We All Believe in One True God" (LSB 954 stanza 1)

C: And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by Whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation
came down from heaven
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again
according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven
and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again to judge
both the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

Solo: "We All Believe in One True God" (LSB 954 stanza 2)

C: And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
together is worshiped and glorified,
who spoke by the prophets,
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

This hymn is sung according to the following format:

P: Isaiah, mighty seer in days of old, And saw enthroned in majesty the Lord, Around Whose throne shone glory from His face, Whose robe of light filled all the holy place. Beside the throne two six-winged seraphim, Who, with their wings showed reverence to Him. With two each hid his face in holy awe, With two his feet, these angels without flaw, And with the third winged pair ascended high To span the heavens with this mighty cry:
