Divine Service, Setting Three

Welcome in Jesus' Name! Lutherans believe that Jesus Christ is present in the Sacrament so that we receive His true body and blood along with the bread and wine (Mark 14:22, 24; 1 Corinthians 10:16). We further believe that in this Sacrament, we receive the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:28) and strength to live an improved Christian life (Galatians 2:20). A worthy communicant is one who is truly repentant of his/her sins and who resolves to amend his/her life (1 Corinthians 11:28). Furthermore, this Sacrament is not only a communion with Christ (Matthew 18:20; 1 Corinthians 10:16), but also with one another (1 Corinthians 10:17; Acts 2:42). Those desiring to commune with us for the first time should talk with the pastor BEFORE the service begins.

Announcements #1

Being commemorated today is the saint who joined the great host of heaven from Immanuel over this past year. We are ALL SAINTS because of our faith in Christ, and as we give thanks for those who have gone before us, we praise not them nor their goodness, but Christ and His work that their faith relied on for their lives here on earth. Today we remember Gene Welborn who departed his earthly life on June 20, 2024. May God continue to bless those surviving these saints now in heaven until we are all reunited in eternity.

Benefit Soup Supper is scheduled for Saturday, November 16th, in the fellowship hall from 4:30 - 7 PM. The menu will include oyster soup, potato soup, chili, sandwiches, and desserts. The recipient will be Emily Faqua who is 32 years old and received a liver transplant a few months ago. Please sign up on the food donation sheet on the back bulletin board. All of the freewill offerings will be given to the recipient. Two $250 Thrivent Action Team cards will be used to cover the grocery expenses. If you cannot attend the supper, but would like to donate, please make your check to Immanuel Lutheran Church of Osman and write benefit supper on the memo line. You can put it in the offering plate or give it to Terri and Dwight Hooker or Brenda Hendricks.

Quilting! The ladies will be quilting tomorrow at 8 AM and Wednesday at 12:30. This will be the beginning of the new count of quilts for the year. All ladies of the congregation are invited.

Thank you to all who sent cards, good wishes, and gifts for Pastor Appreciation. I do feel appreciated and am blessed to be here. I would like also to thank all those who made last Sunday night happen – from the food to the table decorations to the set up and clean up. Thanks also for the flexibility when the organ misbehaved, and we had to press our faithful retired old organ into service once again. God bless you all. Pastor McPike
